

WEEK 6

July 23, 1992 • The Glastonbury Citizen

Summer Basketball

T-Wolves 60, Hornets 57: Greg Wolf had 15 points and Tim Flad added 12 as the T-Wolves, aided by four Hornet technical fouls, won by coming from behind. During the final two minutes, the T-Wolves used a 10-1 run to win. The Hornets were led by Steve Chapman's 13 points and Mike Pavano's 12.

Mavericks 62, Bullets 58: Mark Ironside led the Mavs to victory by scoring 23 points, including five three-pointers. Russ Bencks added 13 points for the Mavericks. The Bullets led most of the game, but Ironside made back-to-back three-pointers in the closing minutes. Tyler Edward's shot at the buzzer fell away. Edwards led the Bullets with 23 points and Eric Angelo added 17.

Magic 63, Nuggets 61: Chris Looby's three second half three-pointers capped a Magic

GBA Standings

Standings	W-L
Nuggets	5-1
T-Wolves	4-2
Mavericks	4-2
Magic	3-3
Hornets	1-5
Bullets	1-5

July 26 Games: Nuggets vs. Bullets, 6 p.m.; Hornets vs. Magic, 7:15 p.m.; T-Wolves vs. Mavs 8:30 p.m.

rally. The Magic fought back and won after being 14 points down, handing the Nuggets their first defeat. Bill Evan's 27 points led the Magic. Evans also had 12 rebounds. Looby added 16 points. Ryan O'Mahoney and Brian Cotter each scored 22 for the Nuggets.